Dear Alison,

Renew your SLCC membership online TODAY! www.slcc.co.uk

Firstly, we would like to thank you for your valued support and commitment over the past year. At your Society, we aim to put you at the heart of our organisation and continuously strive to provide professional, supportive and innovative services.

Your membership has enabled us to accomplish so much in 2016/17, some of the highlights include:

- An online self-service system available on www.slcc.co.uk, which enables you to renew your membership online, book events and keep track of your Continuous Professional Development (CPD.)
- An enhanced advice library containing new advice notes in video format - www.slcc.co.uk/advice-library
- Six bumper editions of The Clerk magazine available to read online - www.slcc.co.uk/newsletters

According to our records your annual membership is due for renewal on the 1st July 2017.

To renew your membership please visit www.slcc.co.uk and follow the steps:

1. Login using your existing SLCC login details – your username is GibsoA22 and password is 13757
2. In 'Your SLCC' click the 'Memberships' tab
3. Renew your membership and pay via cheque, bank transfer, credit or debit card.

For help with renewing your membership online visit www.slcc.co.uk/renew to watch your tutorial video, call your membership team on 01823 253646 or email membership@slcc.co.uk

Don't forget to renew your Association of Local Council Clerks (ALCC) membership which can be renewed in the same way as your SLCC membership. The annual subscription cost for full members of the SLCC to join is £10 and to ensure that you can benefit from being a member of both bodies, we have reduced your SLCC subscription by £10. Other SLCC members and non-members can join the ALCC for £50 per year. The ALCC is the only trade union dedicated to supporting people working in the local council sector, visit www.alccunion.co.uk for more details.

We hope that you continue to find your membership beneficial to your role and look forward to hearing from you soon.

Yours sincerely,

Roxanne Langdon
Membership Officer

YOUR 2017 RENEWAL INFORMATION

SLCC

Society of Local Council Clerks

Professional Supportive Innovative

Benefits of Your Membership

Advice - Comprehensive advice from our team of expert and experienced advisors. The website also contains a comprehensive range of advice notes on all topics in the members' area.

News - Your Society's website is updated daily with all the latest sector news and information, you will also receive a regular e-news bulletin and a bi-monthly copy of the 'The Clerk' magazine (available in digital and hardcopy form) containing a variety of professional articles from sector stakeholders, advisors, and fellow members.

Training - A range of continuous professional development courses; sector qualifications from e-learning and induction (ILCA), becoming a 'qualified clerk' (CiLCA), to higher education (Community Governance). Training events such as conferences and regional roadshows to ensure you have the relevant skills to effectively undertake your role in the constantly changing local council environment.

Networking - County branches across England and Wales where you are able to meet and network with fellow clerks and discuss current issues at regular meetings.

Representation - The Society ensures that the practitioner viewpoint is represented with Government, sector partners and stakeholders both in respect of practical issues in your day to day work and discussing terms and conditions of employment.

More services at your fingertips - Discounted books (such as Charles Arnold-Baker) which can be purchased using our online bookshop, discounts with suppliers for office stationery and utility services, a telephone counselling service, job finder service and supplier directory.

What type of membership do you need?

Full Membership

Those clerks who wish to take advantage of all the services the Society has to offer.

Affiliate Member

Individuals with a role or interest in local councils may apply for affiliate membership. This includes town, parish and community councillors, officers of county associations, principal council officers and councillors and any others with an interest in the local council sector.

Affiliate members may only attend branch meetings with the agreement of the relevant branch chairman, who may wish to consult members before making a ruling. They may not vote at Society meetings and are not eligible to attend the Society's Annual General Meeting.

Past Service Member

The Society encourages full members, once they have left their council, to remain as a member at a reduced rate as a past service member. Past service members have access to all the benefits of a full member except for the advisory service.

Clerk Magazine

The Clerk magazine is included in the price of the full membership to the Society, although some members like a 2nd copy to share with their council.

The Institute of Local Council Management (ILCM)

As an integral part of your Society, the ILCM supports the professional recognition and development of its members. It aims to give members the ability to develop their career to its fullest potential by providing additional components:-

- Recognition within the sector for management and leadership development
- Institute e-journal containing more in-depth articles on wider topical sector issues
- Additional networks with likeminded colleagues
- Membership of the International Institute of Municipal Clerks (IIMC)

Students	£10 per annum
Members	£50 per annum	£40 per annum for smaller councils
Fellows	£75 per annum	£65 per annum for smaller councils
Retired	£25 per annum

Smaller Councils are Councils where precept is less than £50,000 p.a.
