Adopted 12/9/23/10/22 for review September 2024

1. Introduction

Tur Langton Parish Council is committed to providing and promoting equal opportunities, eliminating discrimination and encouraging diversity in the community in the provision of services and employment.

2. Legal Position

The Equality Act 2010 states that it is unlawful to discriminate against an individual on the following grounds:

- Age
- Disability
- Gender Reassignment
- Marriage and Civil Partnership
- Pregnancy and Maternity
- Race
- Religion or belief
- Sex
- Sexual Orientation

These are known as protected characteristics.

The Parish Council will fulfil its legal responsibilities under this legislation.

3. Commitments as an employer

- a. The Parish Council's commitment to Equality, Diversity and Equal Opportunities is reflected in its Recruitment Policy.
- b. The Parish Council will ensure that training opportunities are not withheld from the clerk on the grounds of any protected characteristic. The same applies to attendance at events etc.
- c. Points 4a and 4b below also apply to the clerk.
- d. A newly appointed clerk will make themselves familiar with the council's Equality, Diversity and Equal Opportunities Policy as part of the induction process

4. Commitments when working together as a council

- a. The council will create an environment in which individual differences and contributions of all councillors and the clerk are recognised and valued.
- b. The council's working practices will promote dignity and respect to all. No form of direct or indirect discrimination, victimisation or harassment on the grounds of any protected characteristic or other grounds will be tolerated.
- c. All councillors will have equal opportunities to access training and attend events, regardless of any protected characteristic or for any other reason.
- d. Points 4a to 4c above also apply to working practices involving volunteers and representatives from outside agencies.
