Dear Mrs Gibson

RCC Membership and Community Building Service Subscription

Thank you for your support over the last 12 months. Your membership of the RCC has enabled us to continue to provide advice and support to rural communities across a wide range of issues, which we hope has helped communities throughout Leicestershire & Rutland to remain diverse and sustainable places to live and work.

Your membership of the RCC has now expired and we would like to invite you to subscribe again for the next 12 months. The cost of annual membership remains at £50.

Over the next year we will continue to offer specialist support, advice, information, and resources to those organisations subscribed to our membership service.

Your subscription will help the RCC to continue its work to support rural communities and will provide you with the following membership benefits:

- Regular copies of the RCC Information Bulletin.
- Access to information, advice, and support from specialist RCC Officers.
- Free and unrestricted access to over 40 Community Building information sheets.
- Access to Charity Commission approved model documents and hiring agreement templates for community facilities.
- A platform to showcase local projects through the annual RCC Achievement Awards.
- An opportunity to promote local activities and events through the RCC Diary of Village Events.

The RCC will continue to support communities with larger or longer term projects including Feasibility Studies, Neighbourhood Plans, and Good Neighbour Schemes. In these cases additional charges based on the individual needs of each client will apply, for which we are happy to provide no obligation quotations on request.

We will also continue to work closely with local, regional and national partners to highlight the issues and priorities of rural communities in Leicestershire & Rutland, and to ensure that our members are represented and have a strong collective voice in influencing policies, strategies, and decisions.

To renew your membership, please complete the enclosed form and return it to us with along with your annual subscription fee of £50.

We look forward to receiving your support, and in turn, supporting you and your community.

Yours sincerely
